

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE.

---

Thursday, September 2, 2004.

Met according to adjournment, at eleven o'clock A.M., in an Informal Session, with Mr. Spellane of Worcester in the Chair (having been appointed by the Speaker, under authority conferred by Rule 5, to perform the duties of the Chair).

Prayer was offered by the Reverend Robert F. Quinn, C.S.P., Chaplain of the House, as follows:

God of Forgiveness and Truth, we place our trust and confidence in You and in Your personal concern for our total well-being. You have created us with an intellect which enables us to think, a will to make choices and a final goal to reach. The celebration of Labor Day reminds us of the dignity of human labor and of each person whom You have created in Your likeness. In these changing, perhaps dangerous, times of new economic and employment realities, inspire us- labor, management and government- to plan for the future of our children and our nation. Help us to recognize and utilize prudently our human and spiritual resources, so that all will enjoy economic prosperity and a secure future.

Prayer.

Grant Your blessings to the Speaker, the members and employees of this House and their families. Amen.

At the request of the Chair (Mr. Spellane), the members, guests and employees joined with him in reciting the pledge of allegiance to the flag.
